

ELLIE B BROWN

Ellie B Brown, known by followers as 'EllieB', is the founder and Executive Producer of EllieB Block Party Productions (EBBP) and its nonprofit division; Holy Boldness Ministries.

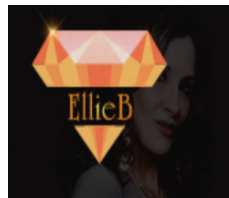

She is a recognized visionary who has designed a worldwide public relations and production company based on positive-action, service to others, and a return to fun entertainment. EllieB is a fully empowered woman, entrepreneur, entertainer, and grandmother of five. She believes it is critical to unleash creativity. Her improvisational and multi-dimensional talent is at once mesmerizing, as it is fun and engaging.

EllieB's broadcast mentor was Merv Griffin. Prior to his passing, he was in pre-production of a feature film based on her courageous personal and professional life-story, The 80s - Compton & Crack to Inspiring Hope - Merv called it his very own friend's 'Erin Brockovich-like powerhouse story.'

EllieB's life is a testimony to strength and resilience. To those who know of her dedication to the emerging artist and entrepreneur, EllieB is considered a safe, culturally savvy, and joyful personality. The EllieB brand has attracted a loyal following from diverse sectors around the globe.

Currently in EBBP production is a short film, The EllieB Story, based on Ellie Brown's jaw- dropping life story. Charitable proceeds to veteran rescue and stop sex trafficking programs.
